

Teacher

To get into teaching, you need a degree and a teaching qualification - and a love of working with children.

Pet guinea pigs, cats, dogs, horses or spiders are entry level zoo keeping.

Check out the links below for information about university courses and careers in animal care.

Chef

Whether every day meals, special occasion menus or cakes and puddings, cooking is an every day occurrence. Check out the links below for information about careers as a chef.

Counsellor

Counselling can be a rewarding career for anyone who likes to listen and help. Often attracting older candidates with experiences to share, counselling requires an open mind and patience.

Karen Wray
wray-k@beaconsfieldhigh.bucks.sch.uk

Whether it is knowing where the sticky tape is hiding, making sure the school uniform is washed for Monday or getting to the airport on time, the role of logistics manager is never over.

logistics manager

Professional logistics managers work in air freight, shipping and for retailers and wholesalers to move goods around the world.

In the UK, we celebrate Mothering Sunday on 10th March, so this month's Careers Insight takes a look at those jobs that Mums do, without reward or recognition.

Happy Mothers Day, Mums!

World book day, nativity plays, trick or treating, Mums can sort out more costume changes than an episode of Strictly.

Check out courses and careers in theatre and film costume and wardrobe.

ual: university of the arts london

Taxi driver

London Black cab drivers have to pass an attest called the Knowledge. It requires encyclopaedic knowledge of all of London's streets, and routes between key locations.

Attention to detail, creatively and an ability to manage clients are key to careers in event planning. Check out information about careers in event and party planning by clicking the links.

Nursing

Patching up a grazed knee, nursing ailments or managing rehab from sporting injuries. Nursing skills are indispensable. Check out careers in nursing.

